W. C. T. U. meeting today at $ p. m. No. 35 Shetucket street, Room 2.

AT THE AUDITORIUM. Sensational Two-reel Military Drams, The Deserter (Bison-101).

For today and tomorrow the m agement of the Auditorium are offer-ing the fourth of the popular Bison-191 series, which is entitled The Desartor. The story of this film is one that is full of exciting incidents and it has a military atmosphere that is realistic-The thrilling cavalry obarge seen in this film is a sight to be remembered. One incident worthy of special mention is when Snowball, the $15,900 Arabian stallion, falls with his rider; the horse and rider behind are too close to turn aside, so they hurdle over the prostrate steed. Snowball then struggles to his feet with the rider stiff in the saddle. This film is in two reels, as are all the big 101 productions, and this is claimed to be the best of the series up to the present time.

A very attractive vaudeville bill is offered banded by Rows and Clinton in remarkable character work in this act, and the story is a good wholesome one that will be well liked.

Those two funny comedians, Frank Shadow Lennie and Eddie Con Clayton, otherwise known as the two Dippydills, will add much to the merriment. Their act consists merely of a long string of laughs, one after another, and you don't even have time to catch your breath. breath.

Flo La Vere, the dainty comedienne, is the third number on the programme and her sweet voice, pretty costumes and attractive personality will please everyone.

Resides the big picture feature there is a full set of films and most of them comedy. The four reels of pictures and the three acts of vandeville make up the biggest show for the money for many miles around.

The Asimostal Wealth will be shown

The Animated Weskly will be shown en Wednesday and Thursday of ever-week from now on, starting this Wed All the news of the world in picture form. Don't forget the Good Friday special, Shamus O'Brien, in two reels. This is the Imp Co's master-place. All Irish actors. Read the poen by Samuel Lover, then see the film Pricay and Saturday this week.

Far from Erin's Isle, Surpassingly Beautiful Story, With Scenes Both in Ireland and America.

One of the most beautiful and interesting Irish pictures that it has been the pleasure of the Breed te present to hauling and repainting. the pleasure of the Breed te present to its patrons this seemon is the feature today and is entitled Far from Erin's isie. The part of the pretty little collect whose sole ambition it is is to go to America is played by the most popular player of Irish parts. Miss Gene Cauntier. In the part of Kathleen she is seen begging her father to give her permission to go to the promised land. This he gives refluctantly and after an eventful passage she arrives in New weatshop. Very soon a cut in wages forces the help to leave, and she finally finds employment in a department store, but her falthful old boarding mistress. Mrs. Flynn. discrease her. mistress, Mrs. Flynn, diagnoses her case correctly and declares her to be

Alone and in a strange country, poor Kathleen seems but little hope of her rever getting money enough to get home, but here Mrs. Flynn, with her big heart, comes forward and compels Kathleen to accept her small savings of years as a loan to get home. The pretty colleen refuses such an act of generosity, but Mrs. Flynn insists and soon Kathleen boards the big liner for the real homeland. The beautiful scenes aboard ship but precede the real beauty of the picture, for arriving in beauty of the picture, for arriving in

FOETRY.

THE LITTLE TIRED MOTREMS.

They seem so tiny, in this vast
Gid world we strive in daily;
They see the busy folk rush past,
With none to wars them gaily;
But theirs the courage proud and high
The wondrous strength that smothers
The sob that's tangled with a sigh
Oh little, tired mothers.

They send their brood off, one by see
To mingle with earth's tollers—
To wrestle with, from sun to sun,
The builders and the spoilers;
Their hopes are in that leng defile
Of tolling, dust-grimed brothers,
And always do they try to smile—
Those little, tired mothers.

They see their hopes turn ashes, and
Their toil go unrewarded.
But in the wrenk of hopes long planned.
Their victory is recorded;
Smilling they go unto the grave,
Nor bare their woe to others;
They are the only true and brave.
Those little, tired mothers!
—Denver Republican.

A BACKYARD GARDEN.

I'll mash s lot of rusty pans
Into a mass.
Top dress the same with empty com
And broken glass.

And soon I'll have a garden fact.
In my back yard,
And sit beneath a spreading vine,
A happy bard.
—Louisville Courier-Journal.
